Gossip and Comment on the Week's Theatrical Events

Mix Stars In A New Story By Zane Grey

Tom Mix and Zane Grey!

The screen's most picturesque western star and fiction's most brilliant narrator of western life again combine in motion pictures.

The dynamic Mr. Mix has already portrayed two-fisted characters of Zane Grey's in "The Last of the Duanes" and "Riders of the Purple Sage." Now comes "The Rainbow Trail," which will be shown at The State Theater Saturday. Tom Mix once more comes to the fore with a vivid interpretation of the historic frontier westerner, adding to the fictional qualifications of the story the daring and fearlessness for which he has been long noted. Exterior scenes for "The Rainbow Trail" were made in the beautiful Yosemite valley.

Is Well Directed.

Lynn Reynolds, long associated with the western star in the capacity of director, held the megaphone in this one, too. Anne Cornwall plays the leading role opposite Tom Mix, and George Bancroft, Diana Miller, Carol Halloway, Lucien Littlefield, Fred DeSilva and Mark Hamilton are cast in strong supporting roles.

For the benefit of his many patrons, Manager Roberts has arranged to run a continuous show from 1 p.m. to 11 p.m., as this attraction, which is a sequel to "Riders of the Purple Sage," is only billed for a one day showing in Ukiah.

JACK LONDON'S LAST TALE OF NORTH HERE

"White Fang" With The Support Of Canine Star Supreme

"Strongheart," greatest of dogs, in the greatest dog role that was ever written!

Told Exactly Right.

That in itself is enough to recommend "White Fang," which will be seen for the first time locally at The State Theater Sunday. But there is more to be said than just that. For "White Fang" has been reproduced in gorgeous breath-taking scenery, with all the panorama of eternal snows behind it, and with its ripping, slashing, dripping drama as intact as when Jack London penned it. No picture of recent memory has been made from a great novel which catches the spirit and atmosphere of the book as faithfully and reproduces it with a power as this. It is something in the nature of a triumph for Jane Murfin, the adaptor, and Lawrence Trimble, the director; and to the program of its distributors, F. B. O. Theodore von Eltz, Ruth Dwyer and Mathew Beltz, who play important roles, stand out finely, but only after the great "Strongheart" has done his four-footed stuff. Here is the one original canine Thespian; and how that dog can "troop!"

THOMAS MEIGHAN AND LILA LEE IN GEORGE ADE'S 'OLD HOME WEEK' A PARAMOUNT PICTURE

HOLLYWOOD STORY A SIDELIGHT ON FILMS

'Inez From Hollywood' Tells Much Of The Movieland Life

Anna Q. Nilsson has five leading men, including several stars, in one scene of "Inez From Hollywood," the First National picture to be shown at The State Theater next Tuesday. Antonio Moreno, Wallace Beery, Lloyd Hughes, Ben Lyon and Ford Sterling all appear in one sequence, having luncheon in her studio dressing room. It affords an intimate glimpse of studio life, and goes a long way to prove that one cannot judge motion picture people by the personalities which they register on the screen.

Not So Strict.

Most producers forbid their stars to appear before other cameras than their own. However, in this case, such legal formalities were waived by all parties concerned. Who could resist Anna Q.? So if you want to see this aggregation all at one time: the "world's worst"—that is to say, best—villian, a great comedian, and three of the handsomest leading men, you must see "Inez" on the screen.

Everything Is Lovely Thro' Redwood Valley

(Special Correspondence of The Press)

REDWOOD VALLEY, June 30.—Quite a jolly crowd, consisting of members of the Redwood Valley Sunday school and their friends ,gathered at the Ford swimming pool on the river between here and Ukiah Saturday morning and enjoyed their annual picnic. It was an ideal picnic day, warm enough to make sport in the water a real pleasure, and the major portion of those in attendance, especially of the younger ones, spent most of their time be-sporting themselves therein. At the proper time, when everyone had reached the hungry point, a bountiful, tempting lunch was spread in the shade on the ground, and the way the youngsters—ages ranging from two to 75 years—sailed in, showed a full appreciation of the good things the Redwood Valley housewives know how to provide, by filling up to satiety, and yet there was plenty left. Not a circumstance occurred to mar the occasion, and everyone enjoyed themselves immensely.

It seems as if the social meeting at Grange hall every Saturday evening would become a regularly established fact, since it was repeated again last Saturday, when there were fully 40 in attendance,enjoying themselves according to their individual tastes; some visiting, some playing cards, others dancing and all joning together in the final stunt at the dining table.

Nearly all residents of the southern portion of the valley have become quite enlightened within the past three weeks, having had meters put in and the juice turned on . All are very much appreciating the improvement.

The promising crops of grain in the valley being harvested, though small in area and scattered, have kept Alec Kauhanen, with the big Finnish Colony binder, busy for a number of days, and with still more ahead of him. Mr. Kauhanen reports the yield generally very good.

Mrs. A. D. Jordan with her four children and a nephew, Burnett Lane, motored from Santa Ana to spend a three weeks visit with her sister, Mrs. Nels Nelson, and husband.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Sprague with their little grandaughter, Brownie, left last Friday on a motoring trip to Modesto for a week's visit with one of his sons who lives there.

Rev. Mr. Minchen, a Congregational minister from Berkeley, an old friend of E. B. Watson and family, whom they have not seen for years, paid them a visit this week.

A sister-in-law of C. W. Gholson, with her daughter, has been visiting Mr. Gholson and his family for a couple of weeks, but returned to her home near Weed, Shasta county, last Friday.

Harry J. Mathews left Monday morning for San Francisco, where he will spend a week.

Joe Rae, young son of Dr. and Mrs. S. L. Rea, will return today from a week-end visit at the Will Duncan home in Hopland.

Meighan Film At State Tomorrow And Friday

The local premiere of "Old Home Week," the new Paramount production starring Thomas Meighan, will take place on Thursday at The State Theater. "Old Home Week" was written specifically for Mr. Meighan by George Ade, famous American humorist, and provides the popular screen star with the most diversified role that he has ever played. It is a part rich in its opportunities for the expression of comedy and pathos and is the type of characterization in which the vast army of his admirers will be delighted to see him.

It's An Ade Tale.

The latest Ade story is typically Ade, which is to say it has that peculiarly human appeal which makes all of his writings so universally liked. In "Old Home Week," the author with the help of Tom Geraghty, who made the film adaptation, has captured all the humor and romance and pep of the typical American small town, so that the picture may truthfully be hailed as an epic of our average Main Street. The action of the story centers around Meighan, who, as Tom Clark, has left the small mid-western town of Clarksville, where he was born, to seek fame and fortune in New York. He returns home during an Old Home Week celebration and, through a combination of circumstances, the townspeople are led to believe he is a wealthy oil man.

Things Warm Up.

The plot thickens when Tom learns that two sharpers are trying to swindle the Clarksville inhabitants through a fake oil well. What happens when the folks discover that Tom is in reality a failure, and how he manages to reestablish himself in their favor by outwitting the crooks is developed in a series of intensely-absorbing situations chock-full of wholesome fun and dramatic surprises. Victor Heerman, who directed the picture, has assembled a supporting cast that insures effective acting all along the line. Lila Lee is featured in the leading feminine role and furnishes the love interest so necessary to every well-balanced photoplay. Larry Wheat, Max Figman, Charles Dow Clark and Charles Sellon are some of the other important players.

FIGHTING RANGER IS A FILM YOU'LL LIKE

Not Overdrawn, Yet It Has A Full Quota Of Real Suspense

Rounding-up cattle by motorcycle is the daring expedient to be seen in "The Fighting Ranger," an adventure picture, the first episode of which will be shown at The State Theater Saturday afternoon with Jack Daugherty and Eileen Sedgwick co-starred. Slim Cole, the famous motorcycle stunt rider, is the man who injected this new thriller into the chapter-play. In these days of a modern west, Cole insists, flivvers replace the old-time buckboard, tractors replace plows, and—the motorcycle replaces the horse for the modern rancher.

You Can't Believe It.

He ranged hills, dashed over deserts and plains, and lassoed cattle, rounded them up, and even bulldogged a steer from his motorcycle. He attempted some phases of this in "The Ghost City," in which he made a sensational ride that crashed through a fence, and fought a battle with another man on a careening motor. Since then he has practiced every phase of a cowboy's work while mounted on his gasoline steed. Al Wilson, celebrated stunt aviator, added thrills of the air to thrills of the earth, making a change from one plane to another, staging a battle in a plane, and performing several rescues from the air. Others in the cast which portrays this thrilling story of love, intrigue and adventure in the cattle country of the southwest are William Welsh, Bud Osborne, Charles Avery, Frank Lanning, Sam Polo and Gladys Roy. Jay Marchant directed.

REMEMBER "CHICKIE?" IT WILL SOON BE HERE

Gripping Serial Bulletin Published Is To Be State Feature

A picture five million persons have been anxiously waiting to see is scheduled to be presented at The State Theater next week. It is the screen version of "Chickie," Elenore Meherin's sensational newspaper serial novel which was published by newspapers throughout the country and which, it is estimated, has been read by five million newspaper readers. John Francis Dillon, director of First National's "Flaming Youth," directed "Chickie." The entire production has been supervised by Earl Hudson, who produced First National's wonder of the screen, "The Lost World."

Cast All-Star.

An all-star cast, headed by Dorothy Mackaill in the title role, contains names that are well-known wherever pictures are shown. In this cast are John Bowers, Hobart Bosworth, Myrtle Stedman, Gladys Brockwell, Olive Tell, Paul Nicholson, Lora Sondersen and Louise Mackintosh.

COVELO IS CALLING

world, many motorists remain after the Rodeo to enjoy the outing facilities of Round Valley.

A Town Institution.

The Covelo Rodeo is not a project run to make profit for its promoters. As a matter of fact, it is a community affair—the citizens of Covelo take an active part in staging it and the money that accrues—if there should be any—has always been applied to bringing better stock, improving grounds and enlarging the show for the following year.

Plenty Of Music.

The association has contracted for a good band to furnish music and the organization will be led by the well-known band leader, Slim Sowash.

Bronks Are Bad Ones.

The Covelo buckers have long been recognized as the worst in the state. Last year they threw or disqualified every man who entered the contest, and money had to be split. This year the association has 11 new ones in addition to the old string. "Man Eater" and "Bald Eagle" have never had a qualified ride made on either one of them.

Some Of The Riders.

Riding these horses the public will see such men as Chub Morgan, J. C. Gillam, F. E. Studnick, "Shorty" Davis, "Reckless Red," "Slim" Holder, "Broncho Bob," "Tex" Haloway, Bud Shuster, Harry James, Gene Hall, Chas. Berry and Jimmie Sullivan. To a "rodeo fan" each one of these riders will be worth the price of the admission. For those who enjoy this kind of sport the rodeo has many thrills.

W. F. Ornbaun and son, Farrance, were recent visitors to Covelo. Mr. Ornbaun stated everything was being done to provide entertainment for the large crowds expected there during the rodeo.

Cadir Elledge, local sports writer, has returned from a week's outing in Anderson valley where he enjoyed a camping trip.

Joshua Grindle, prominent resident of the Mendocino coast, was a business visitor in town Wednesday.

Miss Katherine Held enjoyed a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Howell and Mrs. Marie Held at Petaluma recently.

THEY NEVER FAIL

Some time ago Mrs. M. A. Carpenter, while on an outing, lost a prized pillow. Of course she advertised for it in The Republican Press. One of the children of Mrs. Vic Hildreth found the pillow and returned it to The Press. Because everyone in Mendocino county reads The Press and have grown to look in the classified columns of The Press for lost and found articles hundreds of belongings are yearly restored to their owners by The Republican Press.

Pt. Arena Planning A July 4th Celebration

That Point Arena is destined to have a worth-while Fourth of July celebration is indicated by the following communication sent The Press by a coast resident, who is boosting for the Point Arena celebration:

Are you deliberating where to spend the Fourth? Settle the matter once and for all and come to Point Arena and join us in our mammoth celebration July 3, 4 and 5. Get away from the valley heat and enjoy the cool breezes and the finest trout fishing in the state; not a dull moment for three consecutive days. The Ladies Auxiliary and the Point Arena Fire Department are behind the movement and leave it to them to put over a celebration in Class A style; everything on the program to amuse and entertain. On the afternoon of the third—a street carnival, sports, foot races, milkmaids' contest, Indian war dance, greased pig; grand ball in the evening, music furnished by Bert Miller's famous five-piece orchestra from Santa Rosa; cafeteria supper at midnight. On the fourth there will be a mammoth parade, literary exercises, horse races, baseball, growlers, grand ball. Sunday, the fifth—Movies, vaudeville, baseball; cafeteria open day and evening. Come along, get in line, and enjoy with us this huge celebration and help out a worthy cause.

CLEAR LAKE GARDENS BUILDING CLUBHOUSE

Entertainment Of Public Now Being Well Looked After

Harry L. Rose, tract manager for the Clear Lake Gardens, was in Ukiah Monday afternoon. Mr. Rose states the contract for the new clubhouse at the tract has been let to L. O. Lightford, of Willits, and building will start at once and construction rushed.

For Public Use.

The club house will be at the disposal of the public with a big lobby for dancing and bath and dressing rooms and other accessories of a lakeside resort. Ben Simons, of Los Angeles, president of the company, and R. A. Ginsberg, of San Francisco, business secretary, were in Ukiah over the week-end enroute to the Gardens.

To Come This Way.

It is the intention of the company to encourage travel to the Gardens by way of Ukiah and with that end in view a splendid road has been constructed to meet with the Ukiah-Tahoe highway.

CALPELLA SATISFIED

It is estimated approximately 180 residents of Calpella and Redwood valley now have electric service furnished by the Pacific Gas & Electric company. The lines were extended through that section of the country through the assistance of the state railroad commission.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cox and party passed the last of the week camping in the mountains west of the city.

VICTIM BURIED HERE

The body of Bert Lynch, former local resident who was killed by accident Wednesday in Oakland, was brought here Friday evening, following funeral services held in Oakland. Interment was in the family burial plot in the local cemetery. Mr. Lynch met his death while demonstrating electrical appliances in a shop where he was employed. Deceased is survived by a wife, a father, and the following brothers and sisters: Martin, Roy, Lloyd and Ernest and Mrs. Ada Hagans, Mrs. V. Weiss and Mrs. Lonnie Lowe.

Exceptional Program By Albertinum Class

St. Mary's Hall, in West Standley street, was beautifully decorated Sunday, June 21, in honor of the commencement exercises of the Albertinum school. Blue and gold, the school colors, were draped across the stage where the 11 graduates were seated, and the same colors were used as panels against the walls of the room, creating a very rich and attractive effect. The program, every number of which was excellently given, denoted the careful training the children received, and reflected great credit on the faculty and pupils. Following the delightful three-act pageant and music numbers the diplomas of graduation were presented by Rev. Urban Riordan. The program and list of graduates follow: Opening Chorus, "Springtime;" piano solo, "The Storm;" pageant, "The Cross and the Flag;" piano duet, "Sunflower Dance;" humorous number, "The Jolly Farmers Club;" piano solo, "Polish Dance;" pageant in three acts, "The Sweet Girl Graduate;" piano duet, "The Minuet;" "The Owl Critic;" vacation song, "Up Companions;" awarding of diplomas. The graduates were Archie Studolsky, James Donovan,

Faithful Official Has Decided To Retire Soon

A. A. Lord, who has been connected with The Commercial Bank at Fort Bragg for years, has announced his desire to be relieved of his duties at the bank so he may take a much-needed rest. Mr. Lord contemplates an Eastern trip, accompanied by Mrs. Lord, and they expect to visit Maine and Canada, and other places in the east. Mr. Lord still retains his interest in the Fort Bragg Commercial Bank.

LARGE STRAWBERRIES

Gus Pullen was in Mendocino lately with some fine strawberries which he raised on his place north of that town. In the basket which he displayed were some extra large, fine-looking berries measuring five and one-half and six inches in circumference.

Miss Ethel Hagans, Miss Joy Van Allen and Francis Sanford, of this city, are home from the College of the Pacific for the summer months.

Mrs. Ethel Weatherbee, of Eureka, who has been a guest of Mrs. M. C. Duncan, left yesterday for her home.

Emil Lindberg and family, of Fort Bragg, were resigstered at The Palace Hotel over the week-end.

MONSTER PAVILION TO OPEN FRIDAY, JULY 3

Le Trainon Resort On Blue Lakes Plans A Holiday Event

Work is being rushed this week on the monster open air dancing pavilion at Le Trainon, on Blue Lakes, and the management states the floor will be in fine shape for the big opening dance Friday evening, July 3. The additional space added makes the platform the largest open air dance floor in northern California.

Adjoining the platform are refreshment parlors and an all-day restaurant service.

A Fourth Of July Fete.

Dancing will be enjoyed all day Saturday at the popular resort. Saturday evening at nine o'clock the big holiday ball will open and dancing will continue until two o'clock. Music by the Blue Lakes Five orchestra. Friday and Saturday evening supper will be served at midnight at 50 cents a plate. Admission to the dance—Men $1.00, ladies free.

MEDICAL MEN MET

A score of medical men from Sonoma, Lake and Mendocino counties attended the joint session of the medical associations of the three counties held Saturday evening, June 27, at the Palace hotel in this city. Dr. Raymond Babcock, Mendocino County Medical Association president, presided at the meeting, which was preceded by a dinner. Dr. C. L. Hoag addressed the association on "Goitre" and "Fractures of the Forearm."

RANCH HOME BURNS

Sunday the farm residence of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Schwartz, about three miles southeast of Willits was destroyed by fire. Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz were eating lunch when they heard a crackling noise in the rear of the house. Mrs. Schwartz went to investigate and after looking the house over very carefully inside, stepped outside to see what was making the noise and found the entire roof of the house on fire. Neighbors tried to put out the flames but the home and contents were lost.

Stray Hog Started Car On A Mountain Tear

One night last week on the Philbrick ranch near Comptche, H. G. Henderson left his big Hupmobile touring car standing on a hill and in some unexplained manner the block under the wheel was removed, it is thought by a loose hog scratching himself against the car, and the machine started down the grade and plunged over the bluff, going down about 100 feet before it brought up against a tree, which checked its wild dash, rather fortunately too, as otherwise it would have landed in the bottom of a canyon many feet below.

GOES TO COLUSA

Ukiah friends of Noel Garrison, former principal of the Ukiah high school, will be interested to know Mr. Garrison has been engaged as principal of the Colusa high school following a number of years service as principal of the high school at Stockton.

Potter Valley's Happy Pair Were Charivaried

(Special Correspondence of The Press)

POTTER VALLEY, June 29.—Dr. Nicholson and wife, of Los Angeles, are guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Sperry this week. While here the visitors enjoyed a motor tour of Lake county. When they return home they will be accompanied by Mrs. Sperry, who will visit relatives in the south.

Mrs. Mattie King and brother, Geo. Thompson returned Monday from a visit with relatives including Miss S. Wolf, in Santa Rosa, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bon, of Fairfax, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Carey, of Stockton. In the latter city Mrs. King found her mother, Mrs. Thompson, quite ill.

Mr and Mrs. Oscar Dutcher recently entertained a week-end house party, including Mrs. Ida L. Dutcher, Mr. and Mrs. John Hendricks and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Deacon and family, Miss Catherine Deacon, Sheldon Deacon and Ira Whittaker, all of Lakeport. During their stay the party enjoyed an outing in the Eel river section.

Mrs. F. C. Lowe was called to Hopland Wednesday in response to a message conveying word of the illness of her mother, Mrs. D. Ogden. The aged lady has since been removed to the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. G. Grant, in Ukiah. Mrs. Ogden suffered a slight stroke of paralysis.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Roach, of Willits, passed Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. Corbett and family here.

Mrs. Sarah Sweeney and daughters, the Misses Myrtle and Grace Sweeney, and son, Henry Sweeney, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Sweeney Sunday in Ukiah.

Wednesday afternoon and evening refreshments were sold for the benefit of the local church. The service was under the auspices of the Epworth League, with Miss Alice Hardisty as chairman. A very pleasant program was given in the evening from the porch of the public library. The committee was unable to supply the demand for ice cream, yet realized a nice sum from the benefit.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Eddie, bride and bridegroom of last week, were greeted, after the entertainment previously mentioned, by an old-fashioned charivari party. The tables were turned on the merrymakers by the bridegroom, who disappeared, much to the chagrin of the crowd, and was later located as one of the party staging the charivari. Saturday evening a public reception was held for Mr. and Mrs. Eddie at Grange hall, which was elaborately decorated in flowers and greenery. A pleasing program was given, after which Mr. and Mrs. Eddie were congratulated by the large company present. Following an inspection of the bridal gifts Mrs. Eddie cut the bride's cakes and refreshments were served. Dancing was a later feature of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Frasier and Miss Adams, sister of Mrs. Frasier, were here from Petaluma Saturday to attend the reception for Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Eddie. Others from abroad included Mr. and Mrs. Earle Harvey and Mr and Mrs. Lawrence Mustard, of Ukiah. Miss Adams, an accomplished musician, added greatly to the entertainment by several musical numbers.

WONDERS WORKED AT CLEAR LAKE BEACH

Lucerne Promises To Be Playground For The Coast Section

(Special Correspondence of The Press)

CLEAR LAKE BEACH, June 30.—On a recent trip to Clear Lake Beach, Lake county, I was absolutely astonished upon seeing the improvements taking place at the townsite of Lucerne.

Complete Transformation.

Six months ago I was here. At that time the company was just commencing a bridge, which is at the entrance of the property. Piling for a pier was on the ground. Today not only are the bridge and pier finished, but two monster barges have been installed alongside the pier for the landing of launches—regular floating docks.

Laying Out Roads.

I observe more than 20 miles of roadwork has been done. I am informed all roads are to be hard-surfaced. Later a section of this road will become the Ukiah-Tahoe highway.

Plenty Of Water.

The company is putting in more than 20 miles of water mains, already one-half of these mains, I am told, have been gotten in place. Reservoirs with a capacity of more than a million gallons of water from springs on the property have been built. The electric lighting system is owned by the company and will meet all adequate demands for some time to come. The lights on the main boulevard will be switched on for the first time during the Fourth of July celebration in which the Clear Lake Beach company is cooperating with the American Legion.

Many Houses Built.

The company is building 120 one, two and three room cabins, with lights, water and septic sewerage disposal. Sixty-seven of these cottages are now finished and within the next six weeks, the company states, the whole Cottage City program will be completed. Lately a 150-room bathing pavilion was erected. This big structure is in the hands of the painters and will be formally opened July 4. It is one of the finest of its kind.

A $65,000 Amusement Hall.

I really find the Clear Lake Beach people doing something for our northern country. They are encouraging thousands to come here, as is evidenced by the sale of more than 6000 parcels of land, upon which will rise many hundreds of beautiful homes and cabins. I was amazed at the size of the dancing pavilion, the plans of which were shown to me. This truly wonderful edifice, the material for which is now on the ground and the piledriver busily hammering the foundation piling, will be completed as speedily as possible. It will cost in the neighborhood of $65,000, will have floor accomodations for 2000 couples and the restaurant in connection will be capable of seating 500 people at one time. A completely equipped kitchen and pantries are being installed under the same roof.

An Ideal Playground.

A wonderful golf course is under construction, with an underground water sprinkling system; club house, athletic field and tennis courts, not to forget 800 acres of ground in the forest reserve, which is a part of the Clear Lake Beach Co. holdings to be used for the hunter. A community beach of more than three miles in extent for the property owners to enjoy, makes it one of the most ideal recreation and resort properties on the Pacific coast. Also learn curbs, concrete sidewalks, water mains and electric lights are to be placed on each lot in the townsite of Lucerne.

Clear Lake Beach Co. is routing all its business via Ukiah and is especially in favor of doing so, due to the splendid, neighborly co-operation which they are receiving from this fast-growing community and also because of the excellent train facilities.

Yesterday the A. O. F. held a picnic on Eel river.

Potter Valley will be well represented at the Rodeo at Covelo this year. The coast will also claim a quota of local residents who will enjoy a camping trip and fishing over the Fourth of July.

ELK CREAMERY OPENS

N. C. Jensen, who bought the machinery in the Elk Creamery some time ago, has returned and states he will start up the first of July. Mr. Jensen expects to move his family to the coast. They are now living in Ukiah.

Mrs. Dick Lanktree was a business visitor to San Francisco Friday.

AUGUST FIGONE IS RUN DOWN BY AUTO

Rancher Struck When He Started To Cross State Street

What might easily have proven a fatal accident occurred Saturday morning when August Figone, 67-year-old rancher of the Ukiah valley, was struck down by an automobile driven by G. C. Newman, of Redwood valley. The accident occurred at State and Perkins streets at a busy hour in the morning.

Victim Knocked Down.

Mr. Newman, who according to the city marshal and eye witnesses, was driving in low, was turning from State street east on Perkins when Mr. Figone, who was enroute to the Maple Confectionery, stepped from the sidewalk on the southeast corner of State and Perkins streets. He was struck by the Newman car, which passed over his body. Both legs were bruised and he was considerably cut about the face and head. After knocking down Mr. Figone the car careened down Perkins street and struck a wagon loaded with brick which was being driven by Reuben Grant.

Horses Are Hurt.

The impact hurt the two horses attached to the wagon, slightly. Following the accident state traffic officers, who were early on the scene, took possession of the car driven by Mr. Newman and cited him to appear before the justice of the peace. Mr. Figone was taken to Langland hospital where his injuries were looked after by Dr. S. L. Rea. He was held at the hospital under observation for internal injuries but was able to go to his home the first of the week.

Mrs. H. Meyer, of San Francisco, and Miss Esther Grant, of Ukiah, were passengers recently for San Francisco. The former was returning home from a visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Grant.

J. C. Johnson was called to San Francisco by business matters during the past week.

STORKS will live ONLY in REPUBLICS

—Or so people used to think in the 16th century.

This is the 20th century. But we are still superstitious; for example, when we pay fancy prices for eastern lubricants in spite of the fact that the best crudes so far discovered for the manufacture of a motor oil are obtained from wells on the Pacific Coast.

Experience explodes the anti-western oil superstition

Zerolene actually lubricates better—and because it does it lubricates more cars in the Pacific Coast states than any other oil made—low and high priced cars alike. The most advanced refining process is this Company's patented high-vacuum process, during the use of which Zerolene is submitted to 15 positive checks for quality. Zerolene's special filtration through 40 tons of Florida Fuller's Earth gives you an oil that's absolutely pure and safe.

A longer working life for your motor

Zerolene will increase the gasoline mileage of your car, reduce carbon accumulation and lengthen its working life.

Why pay tribute to a superstition? Insist on Zerolene—ask for it by name.
